GOVERNMENT’S MOTION TO SEAL MOTION IN LIMINE ON THE ADMISSIBILITY OF DEFENDANTS’ NONTESTIMONIAL STATEMENTS

The United States moves to seal its Motion in Limine on the Admissibility of Defendants’ Nontestimonial Statements. Local Rule 8.1 states that it is the policy of this District Court to allow any party to file a document under seal. The Court can subsequently decide precisely how long a sealed filing will remain under seal.

The parties in this case have filed various documents under seal, most notably those related to disputes over the admissibility at trial of materials provided in discovery. Until the Court rules on the admissibility of the Rule 404(b) evidence noticed by the government, as referenced in the government's motion in limine, the government – in an abundance of caution – seeks to file the motion in limine under seal.

Respectfully submitted,

KEVIN G. RITZ
United States Attorney
